

HM Government

BREXIT 31 OCTOBER

Get ready for Brexit

Prepare for Brexit at
gov.uk/brexit

THIS INFORMATION WILL HELP YOU UNDERSTAND HOW BREXIT MAY AFFECT YOUR BUSINESS.

Full guidance is available on gov.uk/brexit to help you to prepare.

If your business trades with the EU

There will be changes to UK-EU trade at the UK border including on customs, tariffs and VAT. Take the first step to prepare now.

If you don't have a UK Economic Operator Registration and Identification number, apply at gov.uk/hmrc/get-eori to continue to trade with the EU.

Check how imports from and exports to the EU will be impacted, including tariffs, taxes and transportation of goods.

Find out about the other actions you will need by searching gov.uk for prepare to export to the EU and prepare to import to the UK.

If you sell manufactured goods

There may be new rules you need to comply with:

Check regulatory requirements for UK and EU markets, including labelling, approvals and testing

If you provide services or operate in the EU

There may be new rules you need to comply with if you operate in EU/EEA countries or Switzerland. This will depend on the sector and country you operate in, and could affect your business if:

- › you have a branch(es) and subsidiaries in the EU
- › you operate in a service sector within the EU
- › you're planning a merger with an EU company
- › you or your employees travel to EU/EEA countries or Switzerland for business
- › you or your employees provide services in a regulated profession in the EU/EEA/Switzerland

Check regulations for the countries your business operates in, including visa requirements. These changes could affect your business.

If you transfer personal data into the UK

There may be changes to how you send or receive personal data from international partners, including in the EEA.

Check what you need to do by searching ‘using personal data after Brexit’ on gov.uk

If you employ EU citizens

You will still be able to employ EU citizens as you do now and be required to conduct the same right to work checks.

Search ‘employing EU citizens’ on gov.uk for advice and guidance.

If you hold intellectual property

There may be changes that affect copyright, patents, designs and trademarks.

Familiarise yourself with these changes if your business uses or relies on intellectual property protection.

Search gov.uk for “IP and Brexit: The Facts” for full information from the Intellectual Property Office

If you receive European funding

The government has guaranteed EU-funded programmes up to the end of 2020.

Find out about a specific fund, search gov.uk for ‘European and domestic funding after Brexit’
