Office for Life Sciences Bulletin – 21 August 2020

OLS Introduction

The Office for Life Sciences (OLS) is a joint unit between the Department of Health & Social Care (DHSC) and Department for Business, Energy & Industrial Strategy (BEIS).

This bulletin aims to keep the life sciences sector up to date on the latest guidance whilst the UK is in the transition period and during the Coronavirus (COVID-19) outbreak, providing you with information from Government to help your members and networks prepare.

If you would like to be added to the distribution list, please email

Public encouraged to register for COVID-19 vaccines trials

Over 100,000 people have volunteered to take part in COVID-19 vaccine trials, helping to speed up efforts to discover a safe and effective vaccine. UK researchers urge more volunteers across all groups to sign-up, especially the over 65s and those from Black, Asian and minority ethnic backgrounds. Find out more about registering here.

Test and Trace app trials

Following the successful launch of the trial of the new NHS Test and Trace app to the Isle of Wight and NHS Volunteer Responders, today (21/08) the residents in the London borough of Newham become the next area to participate. Please find more information here.

New National Institute for Health Protection (NIHP)

Government has announced the creation of the NIHP. The NIHP will bring together Public Health England (PHE) and NHS Test and Trace, as well as the analytical capability of the Joint Biosecurity Centre (JBC) under a single leadership team. This is the first step towards becoming a single organisation, focused on tackling COVID-19 and protecting the nation's health.

This has already started under the interim leadership of Baroness Dido Harding, with the full organisation being formalised and operating from Spring 2021.

Further information can be found here and Matt Hancock's full speech on the Future of Public Health can be found here.

Travel Corridors

Austria, Croatia and Trinidad and Tobago will be removed from the travel corridor list from 4am Saturday 22 August. People returning will need to self-isolate for two weeks. Portugal is to be added to the travel corridor list at 4am Saturday 22 August. Find out more here.

Call for evidence: Integrated Review

The Integrated Review of Security, Defence, Development and Foreign Policy will define the Government's vision for the UK's role in the world over the next decade. Its goal is to set the long-term strategic aims of our international policy and national security. The Review will cover all aspects of international and national security policy, such as defence, diplomacy, development and national resilience. Please find further details along with the "call for evidence" questions, a response template and email address to return the evidence to Government here.
